Die auf der Graphic Novel von Alice Oseman basierende und gleichnamige Netflix-Serie „Heartstopper“ zählt zu den erfolgreichsten und beliebtesten Erzählungen der Gegenwart. Die coming-of-age und coming-out story des britischen Jugendlichen Nick und Charlie thematisiert auf einfühlsame Weise die Themen LGBTQ+ sowie die Diversität und sexuelle Identität der heutigen Jugend. Hierbei werden Elemente der Filmliebe sowie der Graphic Novel in den unterrichtlichen Kontext einbezogen.

Heartstopper – Describing and analysing graphic novel extracts

Have a close look into the graphic novel and learn how to describe and analyse extracts from Heartstopper in class.

What is a graphic novel?

Heartstopper is a graphic novel. Graphic novels are a quite modern work of fiction combining elements of a novel, cartoon and comic. The story is arranged in panels, gutters and balloons!

Gutters are the spaces between panels.

Panels are visual boundaries between different contents.

Balloons are used like speech bubbles.

Tasks

1. Prepare to describe and analyse a graphic novel:
  - a) Think: Look at the extract of the graphic novel and identify the different word balloon panels and perspectives.
  - b) Pair: In pairs, choose one or two panels or word balloons and give a detailed description of their content.
2. Share: Describe and analyse the illustration from the graphic novel Heartstopper and prepare a short presentation (2–3 minutes) on your results.

Tasks

1. Think and pair: Prepare to describe and analyse a graphic novel. Think about the questions below. Then, answer them with a partner.
  - a) Panels:
    - What can you see in the panels? How does the setting look like?
    - Which colours are used?
    - How are the characters presented?
  - b) Gutters: How are the spaces between the gutters arranged? Do they represent changes/distances?
  - c) Balloons:
    - How do the characters communicate?
    - Which expressions/thoughts are necessary to understand the plot?
2. Share: Describe and analyse the illustration from the graphic novel Heartstopper and prepare a short presentation (2–3 minutes) on your results.

Tasks

1. Think and pair: Prepare to describe and analyse a graphic novel: Think about the questions below. Then, answer them with a partner.
  - a) How does the author try to attract the reader's attention / create motivation to read the graphic novel?
  - b) Answer how panels, gutters and balloons differ and why.
  - c) Critique and evaluate your favourite and least favourite panel and discuss how panel frame shapes help in storytelling and the reading experience of your comic or graphic novel.
2. Share: Describe and analyse the illustration from the graphic novel Heartstopper and prepare a short presentation (2–3 minutes) on your results.
