Learning Point 2

Sports illustrated

Newspapers and magazines often use passive structures.

a. Tickets for baseball tournaments sold only online!

b. New White Sox coach presented next week

c. Barack Obama seen at a Chicago Bulls tournament<sup>4</sup> last week

d. Alex Rodríguez injured<sup>1</sup> yesterday

e. Michael Jordan's contract<sup>2</sup> sold on auction<sup>3</sup> next week

f. Contract not signed by Matt Flynn yet

g. Safety always first – Fans not allowed to bring glass bottles

h. New York Knicks tickets already sold out

Tasks

1. Headlines often tell you when something happened. Scan the headlines above for signal words. Underline signal words for ...

- ... will-future in pink.
- ... present perfect in blue.
- ... simple past in brown.
- ... simple present in green.

2. Write the headlines as full sentences with the verbs in passive. Use the back page to write on.

Example: New White Sox coach will be presented next week. (= will-future)

3. Read the news ticker about sports. Fill in passive forms. Mind the tenses!
