M 11Christmas figures all around the world

All around the world, there are dozens of myths concerning Christmas, presents, the one who brings them and the ones who help them. Have you heard of those?

Tasks

1. Try to match the pictures with the myths and the countries.
2. Check your guesses with your partner's.

picture	myth	country
	a) Crampus is St Nikolas's "evil" helper: If children are not good, Crampus finds them, hits them with his stick, puts them in his sack and throws them into a hole. Crampus is quite hairy and looks like a monster.	I. Russia
	b) Jólakötturinn is a cat which comes to children who have not got new clothes for Christmas! It then eats the children up.	II. Italy
	c) Ded Moroz ("Grandfather Frost") is similar to Santa Claus: He is an elderly man (his original clothes were white and blue, now they are often white and red). He has got a long stick and brings children their presents on 1 January. He is helped by his granddaughter Snegurochka.	III. Iceland
	d) Befana is an old witch and, looking for baby Jesus, she brings children either presents or punishes them in the night before 6 January.	IV. Netherlands
	e) Sinterklaas is similar to St Nicolas. He lives in Spain and he comes with a steamship. His helper is Zwarte Piet.	V. Austria

4. Write down the meaning of the underlined words in German. If you need help, look them up in a dictionary.

As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
 Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.
 He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,
 And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot;
 A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
 And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.
 His eyes – how they twinkled! his dimples how merry!
 His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
 His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
 And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow;
 The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
 And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath;
 He had a broad face and a little round belly,
 That shook, when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly.

Poem by Clement Clarke Moore

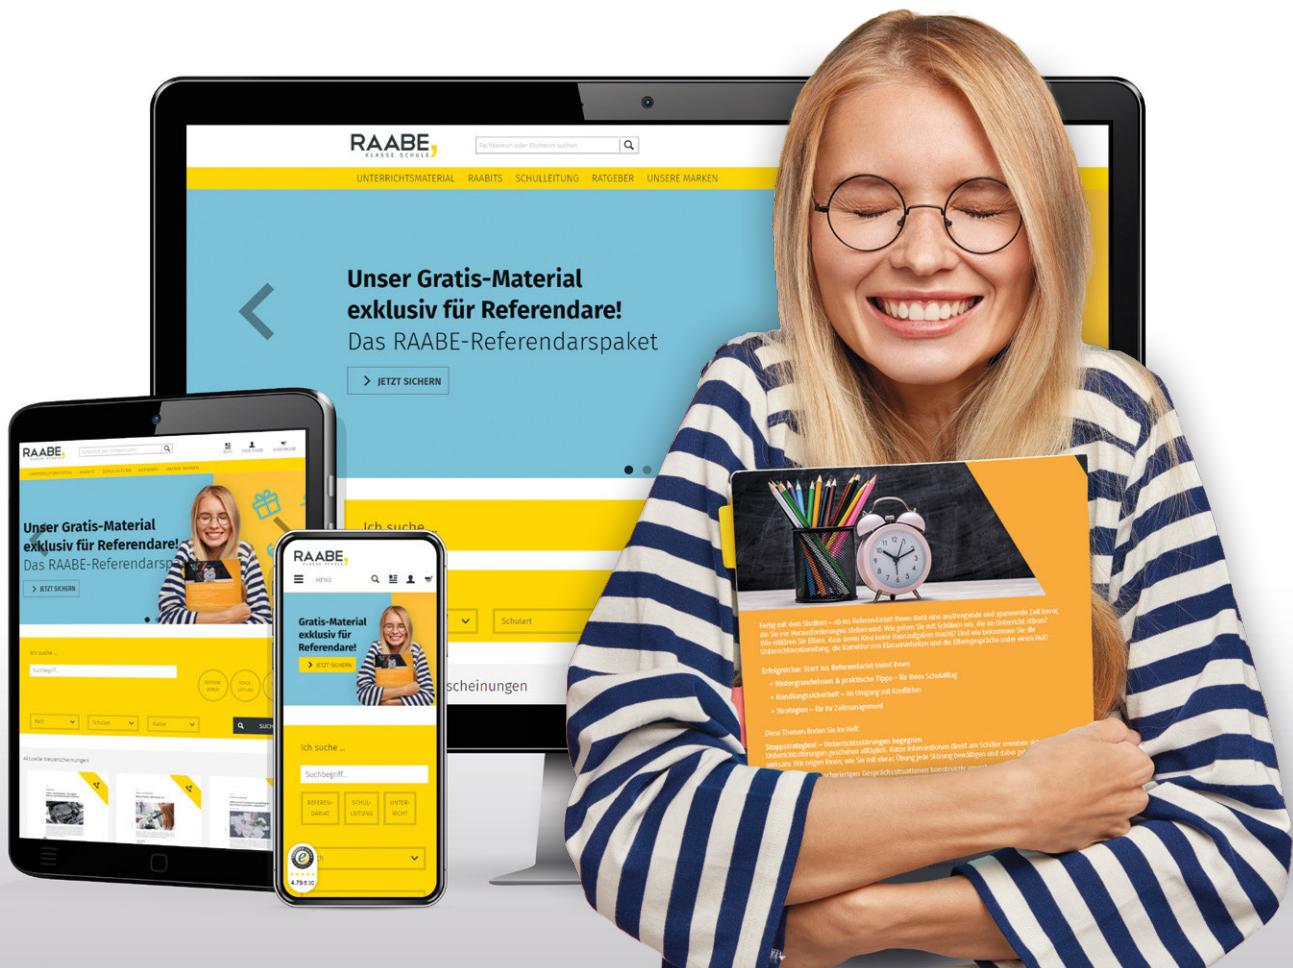

5. How is St. Nicholas described? Write down what is said about him.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
 And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself;
 A wink of his eye and a twist of his head,
 Soon I knew me to know I had nothing to dread;
 He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
 And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
 And laying his finger aside of his nose,
 And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose;
 He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
 And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
 But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
 "Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night."
